

Eden Wild Goose Nature
'Family Nature Day at Aglionby Wetlands'
Wednesday 25th August 9.30-11.30am

We will be visiting Aglionby Wetlands with an experienced guide who will lead us
in pond dipping and hedgerow habitats.

The educational side will be focused towards school age children
– it a good place for adults to learn too.

There will be extra capacity for adults who wish to explore the wetlands on their own too.

This is private land so this is a real opportunity to visit a very special site.

Primary age children need to be accompanied.
There is an onsite toilet.
Donations welcomed.
Numbers are limited
so early booking is essential.

Eden Wild Goose is a local community initiative started by the churches focusing on 'Life in all its fullness'
Including EWG Nature – exploring and celebrating local wildlife.
We have been supported by Carlisle Council, The COOP at Warwick Bridge and Fellfoot Foundation ANOB.

Also of interest for adults, families and children

Thursday 9th September 7.30pm in Wetheral Parish Church

EWG Community Choir.

The EWGCC lifts off again to find its voice which may be a little croaky after a long break! We sing a variety of songs, there are no auditions or membership and the essential theme is enjoyment.

Anyone and everyone is invited to give it a go, come along to 'tase and see'. Singing is good for you, bring a friend. Our next song will be 'You've got a friend' by Carole King. Booking via Graeme.

EWG Nature 'Woodland walks'

Saturday 11th September 10am Gelt Woods from the Gelt Bridge car park.

A two-hour ramble in the woods learning to develop a more meaningful relationship with nature and learn about tree identification from a tree expert. Booking via Graeme.
