

WOW!

Wonders of the Week:

7th – 11th February 2022

Trolls

- Alexa Bourne - for concentrating and trying really hard with her phonics
- Josh Smithson - for being super helpful to others

Gnomes

- Ewan Hetherington - for super effort with his writing, making sure to remember to use finger two finger spaces
- Joey Scott - for an amazing independent write retelling the story of Rapunzel

Dragons

- Thomas Robinson - for showing great enthusiasm in his science lessons
- Katie Hunter - for improving her painting skills and for creating her own wonderful version of Van Gogh's 'Starry Night'

Phoenixes

- Eddie Tate - for working really hard on learning his times tables
- Honor Boswell - for being resilient and working hard on her understanding of division

Griffins

- Ethan Warwick - for excellent effort in all maths lessons
- Georgia Fricker - for always trying her best and having a positive attitude towards her learning

BASC

- Maggie Fearon - for being responsible and helpful

Mr Ashton

- Mila Sutherland - for always having a smile and working hard in school
- Thomas Robinson - for being a great help tidying up and thinking of others

Buddies

- Joel Berti - for excellent teamwork playing games at break time
- Neeve Kilgour - for playing well with other children