

WOW!

Wonders of the Week: 9th – 13th January 2023

Caterpillars

Oliver Brown - for trying really hard to write his name and forming the number 2

Bumblebees

Daisy Smith - for writing simple sentences independently. You are a star writer

Emily Hetherington - for demonstrating excellent gymnastic skills on the air track

Ladybirds

Summer Watterson - for trying her best in all her phonics lessons

Nathan Harrison - for his excellent attitude towards maths this week

Butterflies

Charlie Barron - for showing excellent enthusiasm towards his reading and scoring brilliantly in quizzes

Chloe Radford - for making excellent progress in her reading and greatly improving her ZPD score

Grasshoppers

Louis Lytollis - for working hard in everything that he does and for his fantastic attitude towards his writing

Lois Lisle - for pushing herself in maths to complete more challenging tasks

Dragonflies

Kaiden Curtis - for fantastic ideas and understanding during science lessons

Miley Bowes - for a super improvement in her learning attitude

BASC

Oliver Harkness - for using his imagination and creating a wonderful Lego model

Lunchtime

Sienna Grey - for being helpful in the dining hall and assisting younger children to cut their food

Mr Ashton

Keivie-Leigh Curran - for her energy and enthusiasm in all she does at school

Ben Wills - for showing a mature attitude at school and understanding other people

Buddies

Georgie Graham - for helping others and always putting the equipment away in the box

Caris Milsom - for helping others and putting equipment away.